

West Kingdom Equestrian Marshal, Senior & Special Authorizing Marshals.
Expectations of Candidates for Kingdom/Principality Equestrian Offices (2/1/2016)

West Kingdom Equestrian (EQ) Marshal:

Upon the appointment of a new KEO all existing Marshal Warrants will terminate.

- Must maintain a valid SCA membership
- Must have a good familiarity with the rules (e.g., the ability to set up common EQ activities with the Society Equestrian Handbook (SEH) in hand.
- Must have the ability to inspect weapons and armor to the published standard.
- Must have sufficient horse knowledge to handle and prevent common problems and handle common emergencies.
- Must be capable of running activities safely.
- Must have the knowledge, skills, and ability to fill out event paperwork.
- May serve as an Equestrian Marshal in Charge (Emic).

West Kingdom Equestrian Senior Marshal (includes Special Activity Authorizing Senior Marshal)

Upon the appointment of a new KEO all existing Marshal Warrants will terminate.

Check your warrant status before performing rider authorizations.

- Must maintain a valid SCA membership and hold a Marshal warrant
- Senior marshals receive their authorization from the KEO.
- Special activity Marshals (i.e. Jousting, Driving, Mounted Combat, Mounted Archery) may authorize new equestrians for the special activity for which they are Marshaling after they council with the KEO.
- May authorize for any equestrian activity for which they themselves are authorized, including Marshals.
- Must have the knowledge, skills, and ability to complete and return authorization paperwork.

Expectations of Candidates for Principality and Kingdom Offices

Check your warrant status before applying for offices.

- Must be a SCA member in good standing and hold a Senior Marshal warrant.
- Knowledge of equestrian activity for the Office in which they are applying.
- Knowledge of the general rules provided in the SEH.
- Familiarity with the SEH and the ability to find other information.
- Must have the knowledge and experience with completing and returning Equestrian authorization paperwork.