Unresolved Old business

Presents from the King & Queen were distributed.

It was proposed that we spend $400 plus tax on two new thrones. This was voted upon and passed.

New Business and Items of Interest to the general Populace

Tadgh reported that we have the “A” room at the Redwood Shores Public Library for September and October. The third Wednesday of November is the day before Thanksgiving, so we may want to consider another day for our meeting that month. Tadgh will try and get the second Wednesday, November 14th for a November meeting.

The Baroness of Darkwood would like an event with some rivalry between the Westermark and Darkwood. Perhaps this will be done in 2019, perhaps in conjunction with or in lieu of 2019 Madness. At the You'll Feast / Winter Feast in January of 2018 we will have a mystery for the guests to solve: Who Stole Balthazar's Whisk?

We have surpassed our promise of volunteer hours. At Beltane, we want to dare other baronies to meet or exceed our number of hours.

The Traditional Closing: “Oh Westermark, your Forests . . .”
